

Mission Statement

C.A.R.C. is a citizens' organization dedicated to the long-term environmental and social well being of northern Canada and its peoples.

We believe in sustainable development and the application of the precautionary principle. Our policy and advocacy work is grounded in solid scientific and socio-economic research and experience.